

FISCAL YEAR 2020
Community Benefit Grant Funding

$7.8 Million invested to address unmet health needs and improve the health of the people in the District.

Healthy Body Program Partners

- 5210 Health Awareness Program — School-based nutrition and health program at Cupertino Union and Sunnyvale School Districts
- Bay Area Women's Sports Initiative — Physical activity and self-esteem program for girls at Sunnyvale School District
- Breathe California of the Bay Area — Education, screening and training for older adults with respiratory conditions
- Columbia Neighborhood Center — Fitness and nutrition education program for low-income families and youth
- Community Services Agency Mountain View — Intensive case management for older adults with chronic disease
- Cupertino Union School District — School nurse program
- Day Worker Center of Mountain View — Promoting wellness and nutrition among the underserved
- Fresh Approach — Mobile farmers market and nutrition education for low-income community members
- GoNoodle, Inc. — Movement and mindfulness programs for youth in Los Altos, Mountain View Whisman and Sunnyvale School Districts
- Health Mobile — Mobile dental services for homeless and low-income community members
- Healthier Kids Foundation — Dental and hearing screenings for children
- Hope's Corner, Inc. — Nutritious meals for homeless and the food insecure
- Living Classroom — Garden-based school nutrition program at Mountain View Whisman and Sunnyvale School Districts
- Lucile Packard Foundation for Children's Health — Teen Health Van at Mountain View Los Altos High School District for at-risk youth
- Magical Bridge Foundation — Playground designed for children with disabilities in Mountain View
- MayView Community Health Center — Primary care, behavioral health and preventive services for the uninsured
- Medical Respite — Medical care and psychosocial services for homeless patients
- Mountain View Whisman School District — School nurse program
- New Directions — Coordination of care and connection to safety-net services for homeless and at-risk community members
- Pathways Home Health & Hospice — Compassionate care for the uninsured and underinsured
- Planned Parenthood Mar Monte Mountain View Health Center — Integrated primary care and behavioral health services for the underserved
- Playworks, Education Energized — Physical activity and positive school climate program at Mountain View Whisman and Sunnyvale School Districts
- Silicon Valley Bicycle Coalition — Promoting physical activity and bicycle safety training in affordable-housing communities
- Sunnyvale School District — School nurse program
- Santa Clara Valley Medical Center — Primary and behavioral mobile healthcare for homeless individuals and dental services for at-risk adults
- Vista Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired — Vision rehabilitation program

Healthy Mind Program Partners

- Acknowledge Alliance — Resilience and social-emotional learning lessons for students in elementary schools
- Avenidas — Adult day health program
- CHAC — Mental health counseling at Sunnyvale School District
- Eating Disorders Resource Center — Support for recovery
- Law Foundation of Silicon Valley — Removing legal barriers to mental health services
- Los Altos School District — Mental health counseling program
- Mission Be, Inc. — Mindfulness training for elementary and high school students
- Momentum for Mental Health — Psychiatric services and medication management for underinsured and uninsured
- Mountain View Los Altos High School District — Mental health counseling program
- National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Santa Clara County — Peer support for mental illness
- YWCA Silicon Valley — Trauma-informed counseling services for victims of domestic violence and at-risk youth

Healthy Community Program Partners

- American Heart Association — Community screenings for blood pressure and pre-diabetes and multilingual hypertension management classes
- Chinese Health Initiative — Health screenings and education
- Family & Children Services (a division of Caminar) — Domestic violence survivor services
- Farewell to Falls — Unintentional falls prevention through in-home assessment, education and exercise recommendations for older adults
- Health Library & Resource Center, Mountain View — Eldercare support, health information and medical literature searches
- Maitri — Culturally focused crisis counseling and legal representation for domestic violence victims
- Matter of Balance — Falls prevention classes for older adults
- Mountain View Police Department, Youth Services Unit — Camps for at-risk youth
- Rebuilding Together Peninsula — Home repair program for low-income older adults at risk for falls
- RoadRunners — Patients and older adults transportation program
- South Asian Heart Center — Screenings and education for heart disease and diabetes
- Sunnyvale Community Services — Emergency assistance, social work case management and services for homebound community members
- The Health Trust — Meals on Wheels program for older adults
- YMCA of Silicon Valley — Summer camp for low-income youth